

Holy Spirit

Sir MidlaQ

Key: A

Father
the holy spirit has left me Tellin the truth my job lifting me up isnt everything why I went down here theres so much to take

so much to inhale raw

rust just took over splitting the shiny parts with enforced order

Ill rather Live in the heaven that I kept near my heart isnt the one I love lifting me up isnt everything why I went down here

Another calling in the night and I cant breathe My body shouldnt pay for my job dragin me down isnt the only thing why I went up here

link your lungs to mine before you realize you should have never done that wear the helmet for the safety reasons poor mans skull is better utacked
